Sir,

With reference to your D.O. letter No. L.3682 dated the 17th ultimo requesting me to ask the Nanjangud Town Municipal Council to fix a reasonable price for the site to be granted to the Postal Department for constructing their own building, I have the honor to forward herewith for kind information an extract of the resolution passed by the Municipal Council, Nanjangud, in their Meeting held on 11-4-1926 fixing the rate at annas six per square yard and to state that the rate now fixed seems to be quite reasonable as it is fixed in consideration of the prevailing market value and the nearness of the site to the Railway Station, and the town and also to its water facilities.

The site and survey plans received with your letter under reply are herewith returned.
